Credle Consulting

I want to make a difference with people who want to make a difference, doing something that makes a difference.

OUR WHY:

We exist to help organizations grow exemplary leaders to create a culture that reflects their values, increase employee engagement and morale while improving productivity and performance by teaching communication and leadership skills to schools and organizations so they can develop stronger connections with students and support them in their academic and personal development to cultivate real change and strong leaders to be college, career, and citizenship ready .

OUR HOW:

We utilize engaging, informative, and interactive training to create a transformation and facilitate thought-provoking conversations to gain greater self-awareness and enhance their communication and leadership skills. We provide the tools for your team to learn and implement through specialized assessments and guided curriculum to help improve personal and professional outcomes to close the gap from where they are to where they want to be so they can truly effect change in their school, community, and the world.

OUR WHAT:

We coach, train and teach individuals to become more effective and efficient leaders, by using the John Maxwell leadership principles to help better understand, connect, equip, and influence growth and leadership development through practical application to implement and execute in the organization.
